

A distinguished path of her Success

Smt. Manju Kumari is a dynamic lady. Her husband is in the Government Service. She had a desire to set up a unit with her own efforts, to become independent. She has set up a mechanical workshop-cum-steel fabricating unit, with the financial assistance of Rs. 4.00 lakh from Indian Bank under the scheme of PMEGP. She has been managing her enterprise nicely and established herself as a successful woman entrepreneur.

Already, she has managed to get the work contracts not only from State Government agencies but also from Central Government/Public Sector undertakings. The business turnover of the unit has grown by double i.e. Rs. 8.00 lakh and is likely to go up manifold. She has a plan, to add few more machineries to do all kinds of steel fabrication jobs. At present, she is providing employment opportunity to 12 persons.
