

PMEGP helped him to write his own success story

Shri Bishnupada Debnath is an inhabitant of village Rowa, Panisagar. He attended an awareness camp on PMEGP and showed keen interest to become self-employed. After availing a bank loan for the project cost of Rs. 4.00 lakh under the scheme of PMEGP, he set up a unit of manufacturing dishes and plates from betel-nut leaves. The villagers, who collect the leaves, can also earn their livelihood, by selling them in his unit. These attractive dishes and plates are having a good demand in various hotels in the State capital, Agartala. Its demand is not only increasing in Tripura State but also in the neighboring States. Within a short period, annual turnover of the unit has doubled and reached to Rs. 9.00 lakh by providing employment opportunities to 6 persons.

The profit margin in this industry is high, due to the
