Shri Pronil Das had to discontinue his studies due to financial hardships. He worked in a local confectionery unit for seven years. He has to shoulder the responsibility of his family with the meager income. He attended an awareness camp on the scheme of Prime Minister's Employment Generation Programme (PMEGP) and was inspired to take up a self employment venture. He availed a bank loan with the project cost of Rs. 5.00 lakh and set up a bakery unit. Now, he is selling his products in different places under Kailashahar Sub-Division. He is now earning a good amount every month. He is planning to enlarge his bakery unit, as profits are very much encouraging. Turnover of the unit has reached to Rs. 12.00 lakh per annum and providing employment to 6 persons.
