

It crushed hardship of his life

Rajat Kumar Debnath did his graduation with honors in Political Science. He attended an awareness camp on the scheme of Prime Minister's Employment Generation Programme (PMEGP). Taking advantage of the scheme, he availed a bank loan for the project cost of Rs. 3.00 lakh and set up a stone crushing unit. The demand for stone chips has been increasing day-by-day in the construction activity. The unit made a good business during the year 2012-13 and the annual turnover has touched about Rs. 20.00 lakh by providing employment opportunities to 40 persons.

He has purchased a lorry for carrying finished goods.
