

His passion is his occupation now

He always loved to work with mechanics of motors. This passion motivated him to be drawn into servicing, maintenance and repair of cars and light vehicles. Solving those problems gave him tremendous satisfaction. To harness these personal qualities and skills, he decided to setup M/s Ganchen Motor Workshop, Mokokchung by availing a bank loan for the project cost of Rs. 7.00 lakh from Allahabad Bank under the PMEGP scheme. Shri Imlikumba came to know about the scheme from a local newspaper advertisement.

His skill and hard work have not only helped for his progress but also generated employment for 12 persons. The annual turnover of the unit is Rs. 18.00 lakh per annum. "Personal skills play a significant role in assessing, whether one will be a good mechanic or not", he says.
