

Decorator's service decorated his life

Shri Ajoy Saha is an energetic youth, who had a dream to set up his own business venture. But, his financial position was not supportive to arrange finance on his own. He took a bank loan for the project cost of Rs. 2.00 lakh under the scheme of Prime Minister's Employment Generation Programme (PMEGP) and started decorator service unit. With his dedication and business acumen, he made a significant progress in the activity. At present, two persons are working in his enterprise. He is having a future business plan, to set up a processing unit for manufacturing of pickles, jams, jellies etc.

Now, his immediate goal is to liquidate the bank
