

Why to serve, when you can own it

Shri G. Sukumar had working experience of more than two decades in dal mills, so he was quite sure that there is good scope in this enterprise.

After coming to know from DIC, about the financial assistance being provided under PMEGP Scheme, Shri Sukumar approached Indian Overseas Bank, Kunchiepuram availed bank loan to the project cost of Rs.11.00 lakh to set up in unit Vairam Dhall Unit. His in-depth knowledge of working and processing in the project proved to be of additional advantage, making him a successful owner of the trade. Within a short period of time the unit started giving fruitful project which is six times more than that of the project cost. He is also capable of providing gainful employment to other 13 persons. It has proved, beneficial for my family as I am getting good profit and service to the society, says Shri Sukumar.
