

PMEGP showed the Way

Shri Shyam Narayan Kandilwkar, an undergraduate worked with a manufacturing unit of tarpoline. His dream to set up his own enterprise remained as a dream, due to paucity of funds. One fine morning, Shri Narayan read about PMEGP Scheme of KVIC in a newspaper advertisement. To know more details about the scheme, he approached the State KVIB, Maharashtra.

His endeavour paved the way to set up “Shri Guru Krupa Tarpoline”, a manufacturing unit of tarpoline with a bank loan for the project cost of Rs. 10.00 lakh under the PMEGP scheme from Bank of Baroda. His technical know-how, dedication and timely decision making has made him a successful entrepreneur within a short period, turnover of the unit has increased substantially by providing livelihood for 12 persons.
