

PMEGP shaped up his bright future

11th Class Pass Shri Girish Suresh Kokane established his unit to be a self employed. He came to know about PMEGP Scheme of KVIC through a friend who himself is already a beneficiary of the scheme.

Shri Girish Kokane availed bank loan Rs. 7.00 lakh from Bank of Maharashtra. Decorative fabrication work will always be in demand and market for this product will never die, he says with great confidence.

Shri Kokane is keen on developing a model to target the rural market, which he calls the market of the future.

He is content with three fold multiplication of his trade's annual turnover in addition to providing employment to 6 persons.
