

The price of success is hard work

With the impact of media, increasing globalization, technology women entrepreneurs have become a strong driving force in today's world. Smt. Elisha Gobui is one of them. Proprietor of 'Kasorina Beauty Parlor' is not only able to fulfill her duties of motherhood and entrepreneurship but also providing employment to unemployed women of the region and thus building the nation in her small way.

The Beauty parlor is dedicated to consistently providing high customer satisfaction by rendering excellent service, quality products at an acceptable price and value relationship. To set up her enterprise she availed bank loan for the project cost of Rs. 1,89,500 from State Bank of India, Belilious Road Branch, Howrah. Helping hand to her family, she is also supporting families of her employees.

She has created a large client following through hard work and dedication. Smt. Elisha and her team of four
