

Sculpturing Lives

Unemployment motivated Shri Sunil Kumar Mishra, a sculpture artist to do something innovative and enterprising in this field with business acumen and provide employment to unemployed. With his inspiring efforts he acquired expertise and figured out smart ways to create jobs in sculpture making for educated and uneducated youth of the district.

Answering to the question as to why he selected sculpture making as a profession and how this unit is benefiting his family and society, he replied, art and craft was his hobby and he decided to make it his profession. He always had desired to start something of his own and hence he has set up his own PMEGP enterprise. He availed bank loan of Rs. 2,70,000 from Bank of India, Barhi Branch to set up the unit 'Sundaram Sculpture Art'.

With annual turnover of Rs. 6,00,000, he is able to employ 7 people. Today Shri Sunil has played credible part on his district development. People appreciate him for his initiative to ensure a sustainable livelihood option to the youth of the region. "Concentration and constant working is the key of all jobs", he says with a smile.
