

Hope is Energizing the Dream.

Instilled with perseverance and enthusiasm Shri Radha Kant Giri started his unbelievable inspiring journey as a bee-keeper because this was his family profession. But he wanted to give some modern innovative outlook to the traditional business with the support of PMEGP scheme and availed bank loan from Bank of India, Thakurgaon, Ranchi branch. He established his own venture "Goswami Honey". The unit has grown by leaps & bounds with the annual turnover of Rs.15,00,000 and providing employment to 7 persons.

His motive to set up the unit was to provide sustainable employment to unemployed youth of region. Within few years 'Goswami Honey' became a household name. Now the marketing is build up and demand for its product is increasing. He attended various exhibitions held by different organizations and awards have been conferred to the unit for its quality products. With his simplicity and vision he achieved the mile stones and is an inspiration to unemployed youth.
