

He moulds wood to deliver us utility products

To exploit the natural characteristics of variety of woods and other material was the passion of Shri Lanunungasang. He wanted to convert this passion into a Profession, but financial crunch stopped him from going ahead.

Shri Lanunungasang came to know about the PMEGP scheme from an advertisement printed in a news paper, published by the Directorate of Industries & Commerce, Kohima, Nagaland. With little efforts, he was able to avail a bank loan for the project cost of Rs. 6.48 lakh from Allahabad Bank to set up M/s Lanumech Furniture unit, manufacturing wooden furniture.

Within a short period, annual turnover of the unit has doubled and reached to Rs. 12.50 lakh. Besides his personal growth, he has also provided employment to 2
